

LEADERSHIP TRAINING COURSE

COURSE OVERVIEW

By completing this course you will better understand yourself, your organization and how you fit in. As a senior leader you will also understand the importance of recruitment, morale, risk taking and lessons learned on running a large organization effectively and efficiently.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Understanding your organization's structure and culture - How do things get done
- Understanding you - What are your traits, strengths and weaknesses
- Where are you on the ladder - Knowing what you can and cannot effect
- Identifying key personalities within the company
- Know your people! Manage them and place them correctly
- Who is advising your CEO/decision makers
- How to change culture
- How to create culture
- The importance of morale
- Avoiding cliques within a company
- Bringing everyone together for a common cause
- Good leaders understand risk and working in the gray area
- Building a team for effect